Cathedral PARISH

MADISON'S DOWNTOWN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ABOUT OUR PARISH

The Cathedral Parish of St. Raphael was formed on July 1, 2008 by the merger of three historic parishes located within a few blocks of the Capitol Square.

The buildings of two of those historic parishes – Holy Redeemer and St. Patrick – provide the current facilities for the Cathedral Parish. Mass is offered every day in both churches. The parish rectory is at the Holy Redeemer site, while the offices are at the St. Patrick location.

Old St. Raphael Cathedral was destroyed by arson in 2005. Bishop Morlino has announced his intention to erect a new cathedral on the same site (at West Main and Fairchild). In the meantime, an outdoor Way of the Cross is located there.

You are Cordially Invited

On September 21, 1999, Robert C. Morlino was consecrated Bishop of Helena, Montana. Next Sunday will be precisely the 15th anniversary of that occasion. Also this year, Bishop Molino is marking the 40th anniversary of his ordination as a priest on June 1, 1974. As the Cathedral Parish, we have a special relation with our Bishop — and the people of this parish certainly have a special place in his heart.

You are invited to join Bishop Morlino
At a reception to celebrate his anniversaries
Next Sunday, September 21st, after the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

Dear Friends in Christ:

Today we continue to think about generosity – the third of "the four signs of a dynamic Catholic."

Two weeks ago, I preached about the place of generosity in the Christian life. A few of the principal points:

• In our experience, happiness is highly correlated with generosity – happy people are usually generous.

• Being generous is part of our fundamental Christian vocation, namely, to become more like God, who has been lavishly generous in creating, in the details of creation, and in sending His Son to be our Savior.

• Generosity begins with gratitude. When I realize how good God has been to me, I want to be generous toward others.

Generosity is essential to the life of the parish. Very little will happen here unless parishioners are generous in the support of the mission of the parish. Financial support is one important aspect of that generosity.

Our first challenge at this parish is our demographics: we have very high turnover. And so many young adults and "empty nesters" do not need to register, and so "fly under the radar" without registering.

Therefore, my first appeal is to those who regularly practice the Faith here but are not registered: Please make that commitment! Most new registrations are received on line. To register on line, go to the homepage of the parish website (isthmuscatholic.org) and click the button at the bottom right corner of the page: "I want to join THE PARISH." Paper registration forms are available in the kiosks at both churches, or can be requested from the parish office at 257-5000.

My second appeal is to those who are registered or newly registering: If you are not yet at this level, please accept the challenge of supporting the parish with a weekly offering equivalent to your earnings from 1 hour of the 40 that you work. If your wage is $12/hour (and you work full time), that would be $12/week. If you are on salary, that would be equivalent to 2.5% of your compensation for any given period.

My third appeal is to those who do not yet make their contributions by Electronic Fund Transfer. Many people find this a convenience, and it is certainly good for the parish – sometimes people are out of town on weekends, and street closures can make it difficult for people to get here. Again, the parish website can be helpful. On the homepage, scroll over "Parish Life" to get a drop-down menu. In the menu, under "Stewardship," find "Giving by Electronic Funds Transfer." This will take you to a page with common questions, and where a form to begin EFTs can be printed. Or call parish accountant Tom Mecum at 257-5000, ext. 16 for full details.

◆◆◆ Para Reflexionar ◆◆◆

De que barro estas hecho

A todos nosotros nos toca aguantar los golpes de la vida. ¿Quién de nosotros no ha tenido que sufrir desencantos, decepciones y tristezas?, y al mismo tiempo ¿Quién de nosotros no ha experimentado el amor, la fuerza de la oración, la Gracia de Dios que actúa en nuestra vida?. A lo largo de la historia ha habido un utensilio muy importante: las vasijas; sí, las vasijas de barro, aquellas que han sido moldeadas por las manos humanas y se convirtieron tan necesarias en siglos pasados. Te comparto esta breve reflexión para que entiendas tu vida desde esta perspectiva. Las vasijas de barro, de todas formas y tamaños, eran utensilios valiosos en los hogares de la antigüedad. Nuestros antepasados usaban grandes tinajas para almacenar agua y aceite, empleaban cantaros para acarrear agua y frascos de terracota para guardar perfumes.

Las vasijas de barro, para almacenamiento, se llenaban de granos y otros alimentos. Las amas de casa usaban cazuelas de barro para cocinar. En las comidas, usaban utensilios de barro como platos y tazones, en la noche, iluminaban las casas con lámparas de barro. Los alfareros que fabricaban estos utensilios tan necesarios eran parte muy importante de la economía de los antiguos pueblos y ciudades. Un alfarero, en un momento de inspiración, describió así su artesanía: "Mis dos manos dieron forma a esta vasija. Y el lugar donde en el que se forma en realidad es uno de tensión entre la presión aplicada en el exterior y la presión de la mano del interior; es un verdadero arte manejar ambas manos, mientras una presiona, la otra va moldeando con suavidad y cariño. Así ha sido mi vida. Tristeza, muerte e infortunio, amistad y todas las cosas que me han sucedido que ni siquiera elegí. Todas influyeron en mi vida. Son las manos que me han ido formando por fuera y hacen que hoy sean parte de lo que soy. Sin embargo, hay cosas que creo que tengo dentro de mi: Mi fe en Dios y el cariño y respeto de algunos amigos que actuaron en mi. Mi vida, al igual que esta vasija, es el resultado de lo que ocurrió en el exterior y de lo que sucede en el interior de mi vida. La vida, como esta vasija, se forma en lugares de tensión."

A lo largo del día quizá nos sintamos acostumbrados por las tensiones y demandas de los demás, abrumados por las responsabilidades y presionados por los retos que nos acosan desde el exterior. Sin fortaleza de espíritu en nuestro interior, sin esos momentos de fe , de oración, de esperanza, esas dificultades nos llevaran al derrumbe, porque la tensión externa es muy fuerte.

Recuerda: tu vida interior te da las fuerzas que necesitas para convertir tu vida en una vasija útil, grata a los ojos del alfarero y gratas a los ojos de los que la utilizan. Así es, estamos llamados a que a través de nosotros se haga el bien, se viva en la verdad y se trasmita el amor, hoy es tu oportunidad. Por eso, no nos desanimemos: "Pues aunque por fuera nos vamos deteriorando, por dentro nos renovamos día a día." (2 Cor. 4:16).

Padre José Luis Vázquez
