17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ July 27, 2014

Cathedral PARISH

MADISON'S DOWNTOWN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ABOUT OUR PARISH

The Cathedral Parish of St. Raphael was formed on July 1, 2008 by the merger of three historic parishes located within a few blocks of the Capitol Square.

The buildings of two of those historic parishes – Holy Redeemer and St. Patrick – provide the current facilities for the Cathedral Parish. Mass is offered every day in both churches. The parish rectory is at the Holy Redeemer site, while the offices are at the St. Patrick location.

Old St. Raphael Cathedral was destroyed by arson in 2005. Bishop Morlino has announced his intention to erect a new cathedral on the same site (at West Main and Fairchild). In the meantime, an outdoor Way of the Cross is located there.

The Way of the Cross at Cathedral Place. See the story about improvements at the site on page 2.

Capitol Mile Run This Sunday, July 27th

Come to the Capitol Square this Sunday afternoon to cheer on our Cathedral Parish runners! Team Cathedral—runners and supporters—will be meeting on the Capitol lawn between West Washington and State Street from 1:30 pm. Races begin at 3:00 pm and conclude at 5:00 pm. Feel free to bring a snack to share. This is a great opportunity to bond with fellow parishioners as well as spread our Catholic joy to all those around us!

Seminarian Appeal

At the Masses next weekend, John Winkowitch will be asking your support for the seminarians of our diocese. Each summer, the diocesan vocation office arranges for the seminarians who are home on vacation to speak at each parish in the diocese. These talks serve a dual purpose – they allow people around the diocese to meet and hear one of the seminarians whom they see in the Catholic Herald, and it allows the seminarians to ask for financial support to help cover the very considerable cost of seminary education. Envelopes for this seminary appeal will be available in the pews next weekend. If you don't come to Mass prepared to make a contribution next weekend, the envelopes may be taken home and returned within the following weeks.

Congratulations, Lucy!

Thanks to Lucy Ruth who agreed to run for a second term as Parish Trustee. She received unanimous support for re-election in the Trustee election just concluded. No valid write-in candidates were received. Lucy's two year-term will expire in 2016.

Catechists Needed

Would you like to share your faith and pass it on to the next generation? Catechists are needed for grades 7, 8 and Confirmation. Religious educations classes are taught in English from 9:00 to 10:30 am at the Religious Education Center, next to St. Patrick Church, on Sunday mornings. Please contact Amber Cerrato for more information. Thank you! 608-257-5000 x12 or amber@isthmuscatholic.org

Way of the Cross

The Way of the Cross at Cathedral Place (pictured on the bulletin cover this week) is undergoing a couple of important improvements. The path rises from its beginning at W. Washington Avenue to the major portion of the property. On this sloped part of the path, there has been a severe problem with the crushed granite washing out. The best available solution is to pave this first, sloped part of the path – from the head of the path to the fourth station. The concrete will be tinted to match the crushed red granite, which will remain in place for the remainder of the Way of the Cross. Also a number of trees on the site that were killed by rabbit damage are being replaced – some of them by alternative species that are known to thrive in our Wisconsin climate and in an urban setting. The Stations of the Cross are prayed at the site each Saturday morning at 9:00. Come join in the Stations after the Saturday morning Mass or on your way to the farmers' market.

◆◆◆ From The Rector ◆◆◆

Dear Friends in Christ:

In my Sunday homilies during these summer months, I am talking about how we can participate in the New Evangelization – first by allowing ourselves to be re-evangelized through an embrace of four practices that mark the most engaged Catholic parishioners.

The first of these practices is prayer. Last week, I offered two challenges:

- begin each day with at least a moment of prayer
- dedicate ten minutes of good time each day, at a regular time to intentional prayer that includes:

1. Gratitude – thank God for whatever you are most grateful today
2. Awareness – recall some time in the last 24 hours you have not been your best; talk to God about the situation and what you learned from it
3. Listening – listen to what the Lord might be saying to you
4. Peace – ask forgiveness for any wrong you have committed and ask the Lord to fill you with a deep and abiding peace
5. Freedom – speak with God about how he is inviting you to change your life to be the person he created you to be ("to be a saint")
6. Others –asking God to bless and guide those who need your prayers
7. And concluding with the "Our Father."

This week, I am speaking more about the third element, "listening," and proposing that we read Sacred Scripture in a way that allows us to encounter the Lord Jesus in prayer.

As an example, we might look at the Gospel for next Sunday, which will be Matthew 14:13-21, the climax of which is one of the feeding miracles. In just the first couple of sentences of this Gospel, we can find two opportunities for fruitful meditation.

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. In his human nature, what would have been Jesus' emotional reaction to that news? Have I received news that caused a similar reaction in me? The Lord's reaction was to withdraw to a deserted place – what is the Lord telling me by giving that example? What did Jesus say to the Father in that deserted place? What did the Father say to him? What do I want to say to the Father about my troubles? Can I hear the Father saying to me what he said to Jesus?

The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them . . . Would Jesus have seen me in that crowd or would I have stayed home? In my life today, what would be the equivalent of going out on foot to see Jesus? What would be my motivation to do that? What am I looking for from Jesus? Can I see the eyes of the Lord looking at me with pity? What would Jesus say to me about the need that I am bringing to him?

2015 Workbook for Lectors

If you are a lector for Mass, in English or in Spanish, and would like to purchase a Workbook to help with the readings and pronunciations, please let us know. In the past we had several copies in the sacristy for people to reference, but they were seldom used. The parish would subsidize the $14.00 cost of each workbook and make them available to lectors for $5.00. To order a 2015 Workbook For Lectors, please contact the parish office, 257-5000, before August 25th.

First Friday Devotions

Please join us Friday, August 1st, and each First Friday of the month, following the 5:15 pm Mass at Holy Redeemer for Sacred Heart Devotions. Recitation of the rosary precedes Mass.

Lost & Found Boxes—Last Chance

The treasures in our Lost and Found boxes, located in the narthex at St. Patrick and in the back of Holy Redeemer Church, will be donated to the St. Vincent de Paul Society after this weekend's Masses. This is your last chance to reclaim items you may not even know are missing!

Mass Intentions Needed

We are currently seeking intentions for our parish Masses celebrated at St. Patrick and Holy Redeemer churches. It is a great privilege to celebrate Masses for deceased loved ones; Masses can also be celebrated for living persons. It makes an excellent gift for birthdays, anniversaries, etc.

At our parish, we celebrate 18 Masses each week. To schedule a Mass for either Holy Redeemer or St. Patrick, please call our parish office at 257-5000.

Concert on the Square – This Wednesday, July 30

Enjoy an evening downtown listening to a U2 cover band at the Concert on the Square. While you don't have to RSVP, if you do, it will give us an idea of how much blanket space to spread out that afternoon. When you come looking, we'll be in the grassy area across from the Old Fashioned. Feel free to bring food or drinks for the evening. The concert starts at 7:00 pm, but feel free to come as early as 5:30 pm to hang out. For more info, contact lindsay.becher@straphael.org

Young Adult Brunch Next Sunday

We have a brunch for young adults (in their 20s and 30s) after the 11:00 am Mass at St. Patrick on the first Sunday of each month. Join us for brunch next Sunday, August 3rd. Cash donations to help defray the cost of the brunch are greatly appreciated.

To receive email updates about Young Adult activities in our parish, please contact Marc Laudonio at 257-5000 or marc@isthmuscatholic.org.

••• Religious Education •••

Religious Education Registration Started

Registration for religious education is now open. All registrations should be turned in no later than Friday, August 29th. Forms can be found in the church kiosks or accessed via our website. (http://www.isthmuscatholic.org/formation/childrens-catechesis/). Registration forms and the required documents and deposits may be mailed in or brought in to the parish office, or they can be turned in on the following Saturdays in the dining hall of Holy Redeemer Church from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm: August 9th, August 16th and August 23rd.

Registration for special preparation classes for home schooled children is also due at this time for any child who wishes to make his/her First Communion in spring of 2015.

If your child did not partake in classes last year, please bring a copy of their birth certificate and sacrament certificates he/she may have received. A non-refundable fee of 50% of the total is due per child at the moment of registration. We strongly encourage ongoing religious formation, even if your child has already received the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Communion.

For more information, please contact Amber Cerrato at: 257-5000 x12 or amber@isthmuscatholic.org. Thank you!

The Main Event: Summer Break

'The Main Event' is a systematic study of the Catholic Faith for adults, revealing how all the aspects of the Catholic Faith fit together into one beautiful plan of God designed to bring us to authentic happiness.

The "Main Event" is on summer break but be sure to watch the bulletin and website over the summer for details about "The Main Event" starting up again in September.

Catholicism 101

We offer a monthly 3-session overview of the Catholic Faith for adults at St. Patrick Church that occurs every other month. Session I will next be offered Tuesday, September 9th, with sessions II and III on the following two Tuesday evenings. Sessions begin at 6:30 pm.

For further information on any of these programs, visit our website at www.isthmuscatholic.org, or contact Marc Laudonio at 257-5000 or marc@isthmuscatholic.org.

◆◆◆ Para Reflexionar ◆◆◆

El verdadero amor: si me amas, dímelo con tu vida

La aceptación de todo lo que es el otro ya no podrá ser: quizá sea este el punto mas interesante. Nuestra relación, sea con quien sea, debe ser realista; aunque queramos que papá o mamá cambien, la novia o el novio mejoren ciertos aspectos, si los queremos, tendremos que convivir con ellos toda la vida, va dentro del paquete. El verdadero amor es ilusionado, pero no ilusorio. ¡Cuantas veces nos podemos topar con quienes dicen "Él es así, pero yo lo voy a cambiar"! Sueños inconsistentes que echan a perder la felicidad de muchos. Según los expertos, es mas fácil aprender nuevos comportamientos cuando somos pequeños que cuando somos grandes, árbol que crece torcido, torcido se queda. No podemos pasar la vida esperando que la persona con quien convivo vaya a cambiar o sea diferente.

Acepto y quiero lo que él o ella son ahora, en este momento, en cada momento, pues no puedo asegurar que mañana sea igual. Quizás mañana habrá unas canas de mas, unas arrugas de mas, una enfermedad, una perdida de empleo; pero nada de eso puede cambiar el verdadero amor, porque se ama lo que la otra persona es, lo mas profundo que hay en ella misma, esa intimidad que solo conocen y comparten tú y ella. Ese es el amor que permite seguir amando, aun cuando ella no sabe quien soy yo, pero yo se todavía muy bien quien es ella.

"Permanezcan en Mí, y Yo en ustedes. Como el sarmiento no puede dar fruto por si mismo si no permanece en la vid, así tampoco ustedes si no permanecen en Mí. Yo Soy la vid, ustedes los sarmientos; el que permanece en Mí y Yo en él, ese da mucho fruto, porque separados de Mí nada pueden hacer.

Si alguien no permanece en Mí, es echado fuera como un sarmiento y se seca; y los recogen, los echan al fuego y se queman. Si permanecen en Mí y Mis palabras permanecen en ustedes, pidan lo que quieran y se les dará. En esto es glorificado Mi Padre, en que den mucho fruto, y así prueben que son Mis discípulos. Como el Padre Me ha amado, así también Yo los he amado; permanezcan en Mi amor. Si guardan Mis mandamientos, permanecerán en Mi amor, así como Yo he guardado los mandamientos de Mi Padre y permanezco en Su amor. De estas cosas les he hablado, para que Mi gozo este en ustedes, y su gozo sea perfecto. Este es Mi mandamiento: que se amen los unos a los otros, así como Yo los he amado. Nadie tiene un amor mayor que este: que uno dé su vida por sus amigos. Ustedes son mis amigos si hacen lo que Yo les mando". (Jn.15,4-14).

Padre José Luis Vázquez
