21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ August 24, 2014

Cathedral PARISH

MADISON'S DOWNTOWN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ABOUT OUR PARISH

The Cathedral Parish of St. Raphael was formed on July 1, 2008 by the merger of three historic parishes located within a few blocks of the Capitol Square.

The buildings of two of those historic parishes – Holy Redeemer and St. Patrick – provide the current facilities for the Cathedral Parish. Mass is offered every day in both churches. The parish rectory is at the Holy Redeemer site, while the offices are at the St. Patrick location.

Old St. Raphael Cathedral was destroyed by arson in 2005. Bishop Morlino has announced his intention to erect a new cathedral on the same site (at West Main and Fairchild). In the meantime, an outdoor Way of the Cross is located there.

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father."

— Mt 16:15-17

◆◆◆ From The Rector ◆◆◆

Dear Friends in Christ:

This weekend I continue my series of homilies drawn from Matthew Kelly's book The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic, making some concrete suggestions about the second of the "four signs" – study.

The study Kelly especially encourages is that which will give us a better "big picture" understanding of God, the world and ourselves. He recommends 15 minutes or five pages a day as a modest investment that will make a significant difference in our understanding of the Faith and our ability to explain it.

The most obvious place to look for an overview of the Catholic Faith is a catechism. The catechism produced under St. John Paul II (1994) is the authoritative work and available in many formats. In a large format softcover edition (pleasant to read), the Catechism of the Catholic Church (Second edition) runs to 904 pages (for 2865 paragraphs). The much shorter Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church puts the material into 598 questions-and-answers (in 204 pages).

Either of these can be read in conjunction with the Main Event, the Tuesday night series on the Catholic Faith offered here at the parish – with the option of attending the session for commentary as desired.

Another recommended catechism: The Catholic Catechism by John A. Hardon, S.J. It is more apologetical than the CCC – i.e., it gives argumentation for Catholic teaching (from history and from reason), especially on disputed points. In doing so, it more easily keeps the attention of the reader than the CCC does.

A very popular and readable contemporary author is Scott Hahn. Rome Sweet Home is the story of the conversion of Scott and his wife Kimberly. It can be helpful for someone wanting to understand Catholic beliefs in light of Protestant objections. His book A Father Who Keeps His Promises: God's Covenant Love in Scripture is an interesting introduction to all of salvation history in light of the very important idea of covenant.

There are also a couple of classic texts in English that might be mentioned. Both these are continually being published in new editions and are available as audio books.

Mere Christianity (1952) by C. S. Lewis. Lewis was an Anglican, but this book presents historic Christianity so as to make it accessible to the modern person. Very readable and commonsensical.

Orthodoxy (1908) by G. K. Chesterton. Now over 100 years old, the reader must be willing to deal with a style that can seem somewhat stilted. But Chesterton is brilliant in using comparisons and imagery in helping the reader see things in new ways.

Another way to look at the whole of the Faith is to do so through history. This can be helpful if we think of the history of the Church only in terms of its darkest chapters – thrown up by unbelievers as an objection to the Faith. A very sympathetic (maybe almost too defensive) telling of the history of the Church in one volume is H. W. Crocker's Triumph. Another interesting little book is How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization by Thomas E. Woods. For a really fine multi-volume history of the Church, try Warren Carroll's History of Christendom.

Many people find it easier to listen than to read. The Lighthouse CDs available on the kiosk in our two churches address this need. Visit the Lighthouse website (lighthousecatholicmedia.org) to see all the titles they have available on compact disc or in MP3 format. Ignatius Press offers a bundle of four CDs defending the existence of God: "Answering Atheism," "Proofs for the Existence of God" (by Robert Spitzer, S.J., a physicist who spoke here in the diocese last year), "Relativism" and "Why I am a Catholic."

◆◆◆ At Cathedral Parish ◆◆◆

Congratulations

Congratulations and best wishes to José Carlos Cacahua and Danielle Ihland who were married at Holy Redeemer last weekend.

Stations of the Cross

All are encouraged to attend the Stations of the Cross which are prayed publicly at the St. Raphael Cathedral site each Saturday morning beginning at 9:00 am. During the summer, seminarians will be leading the Stations.

The entrance to the Way of the Cross at Cathedral Square is located at the corner of W. Washington Avenue and S. Henry Street. The garden near the entrance recalls the Garden of Gethsemani, where Jesus prayed before his arrest. Following the red path, one encounters fourteen stone crosses in the ground, marked with Roman numerals. These recall fourteen moments in the story of Jesus' suffering and death that have been remembered with devotion for twenty centuries. The garden at the last Station recalls the garden in which the Lord's tomb was located.

St. Thérèse Lecture Friday, September 19th

Come to the next St. Therese Lecture to hear Alejandro Bermudez speaking on Who is Pope Francis? What is his mind? Alejandro Bermudez is executive director of Catholic News Agency and the world's largest Catholic news agency in Spanish. He is the author of the new book Pope Francis: Our Brother, Our Friend. His presentation will serve to reveal little-known insights of the pontiff's history, personality, interior world, human abilities, work habits, devotions, concerns, and friendships—opening a fascinating door to better understanding the man whom the Holy Spirit called to lead the Church at this time.

To register for this 7:30 pm presentation at the O'Connor Center, please go to www.madisondiocese.org or call 821-3160.

◆◆◆ Para Reflexionar ◆◆◆

La Generosidad

La generosidad es la virtud de las almas grandes, que encuentran la satisfacción y la alegría en el dar mas que en el recibir. La persona generosa sabe dar ayuda material con cariño y comprensión, y no busca a cambio que la quieran, la comprendan y la ayuden. Da y se olvida que ha dado. El dar ensancha el corazón y lo hace mas joven, con mayor capacidad de amar. Cuanto mas damos, mas nos enriquecemos interiormente.

¿Con quien tenemos que ser generosos? Con todos. Con Dios, con los demás, sobre todo con los mas necesitados. Manifestaciones de una persona generosa: 1) Sabe olvidar con prontitud los agravios. 2) Tiene comprensión y no juzga a los demás. 3) Se adelanta a los servicios menos agradables del trabajo y de la convivencia. 4) Perdona con prontitud todo y siempre. 5) Acepta a los demás como son. 6) Da, sin mirar a quien. 7) Da hasta que duela. 8) Da sin esperar.

Hagamos ahora la relación Eucaristía y Generosidad. Generosidad, primero por parte de Dios: Generoso es Dios que nos ofrece este Banquete de la Eucaristía y nos sirve, no cualquier alimento, sino el mejor alimento: Su propio Hijo. Generoso es Dios porque no se reserva nada para Él. Generoso es Dios en Su misericordia al inicio de la Misa, que nos recibe a todos arrepentidos y con el alma necesitada. Generoso es Dios cuando nos ofrece Su mensaje en la liturgia y lo va haciendo a lo largo del ciclo litúrgico. Generoso es Dios cuando considera fruto de nuestro trabajo lo que en realidad nos ha dado Él; pan, vino, productos de nuestro esfuerzo. Generoso es Dios cuando no mira la pequeñez y egoísmo de nuestro corazón al entregarle esa poca cosa, y Él la ennoblece y diviniza convirtiéndola en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Su querido Hijo. Generoso es Dios que nos manda el Espíritu Santo para que realices ese milagro portentoso. El Espíritu Santo es el don de los dones. Generoso es Dios cuando acoge y recibe todas nuestras intenciones, sin pedir pago ni recompensa. Generoso es Dios cuando nos ofrece su paz, sin nosotros merecerla. Generoso es Dios cuando se ofrece en la Comunión a los pobres y ricos, cultos e ignorantes, pequeños, jóvenes, adultos y ancianos. Y se ofrece a todos en el Sagrario como fuente de gracia. Generoso es Dios, que va al lecho de ese enfermo como viático o como Comunión, para consolarlo y fortalecerlo. Generoso es Dios que esta día y noche en el Sagrario, velando, cuidándonos, sin importarle nuestra indiferencia, nuestras disposiciones, nuestra falta de amor. (Continuará)
