22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ August 31, 2014

Cathedral PARISH

MADISON'S DOWNTOWN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ABOUT OUR PARISH

The Cathedral Parish of St. Raphael was formed on July 1, 2008 by the merger of three historic parishes located within a few blocks of the Capitol Square.

The buildings of two of those historic parishes – Holy Redeemer and St. Patrick – provide the current facilities for the Cathedral Parish. Mass is offered every day in both churches. The parish rectory is at the Holy Redeemer site, while the offices are at the St. Patrick location.

Old St. Raphael Cathedral was destroyed by arson in 2005. Bishop Morlino has announced his intention to erect a new cathedral on the same site (at West Main and Fairchild). In the meantime, an outdoor Way of the Cross is located there.

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct." – Mt 16:26-27

Labor Day Mass Schedule

This Monday, September 1st, is Labor Day. In our parish there will only be one Mass scheduled that day: 9:00 am at Holy Redeemer. There will be no 12:10 pm Mass at St. Patrick, no 5:15 pm Mass at Holy Redeemer, nor confessions heard that day. The parish office will also be closed.

Sunday Morning 'Lectio Divina' Prayer Group

Do you want to get more out of Mass? Would you like to spend time listening to what God has to say to you? Lectio Divina (pronounced "Lec -tsee-oh Di-vee-nah") means "Divine Reading" and refers specifically to a method of Scripture reading practiced by monastics since the early Church. We will base our prayer on the readings of that Sunday, usually focusing on the Gospel reading. For questions, contact Karen Paschke at kapaschke@yahoo.com.

Sundays, Beginning on September 21 ▪ 10:00—10:45 am
St. Patrick's Church, first floor meeting room

Volunteers Needed to Paint Religious Ed Center

Do you enjoy painting? Would you like to join fellow parishioners for a fun day painting the interior of our Religious Education Center? The building is in the process of being remodeled to include bigger classrooms and handicapped accessibility. We are hoping the building will be ready for painting by Saturday, September 6th, or September 13th (classes begin Sunday, September 21st).

All adults over the age of 18 are encouraged to join us, especially experienced painters. Please call the parish office to leave your name and phone number. We will then contact you with specific details. All painting supplies will be furnished.

Organist at Holy Redeemer

Three weeks ago, our music at the 9:00 am Sunday Mass was a cappella because we were unable to find an organist. At the end of Mass, I said that if the Lord weren't satisfied with our efforts, He'd just have to send us a new regular organist. Well, perhaps our singing wasn't quite adequate, because the Lord has now sent us a new organist! We anticipate that Mr. David Douma will begin as our regular 9:00 am organist next Sunday, September 7th. David had previously played at Holy Redeemer – for several years in the 1980s. He has been living out of state for most of the intervening years. We are very pleased to have him back with us, and grateful to God for sending him. Welcome, David!

Parking Lot at Holy Redeemer

As the bulletin goes to press this week, we are confident that the Holy Redeemer parking lot will be in service – and better than it has ever been. The reconstruction was very thorough – involving the excavation of the site, the installation of a new base, and the replacement of deteriorated sewer pipes. The last and greatest feature of the new parking lot is still in the works – the installation of gates to control access to the lot. This should allow us to keep the "parking poachers" at bay and insure that the lot is available for those coming for Mass. Details about that system should be coming shortly.

Dear Friends in Christ:

As I continue my series of homilies drawn from Matthew Kelly's book The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic, I come this weekend to the third of the "four signs" – generosity.

It's not surprising that this is one of Kelly's "signs," since generosity was the basis on which Kelly identified his most dynamic Catholics – they are the 7% of registered parishioners who contribute 80% of the volunteer hours and 80% of the financial support that keeps our parishes going

A few general points for reflection on this sign or characteristic of our most engaged and committed people:

▪ Kelly observes that the happiest people he knows are also the most generous. Is he making this up, or is this also your experience? Identify three of the happiest people you know personally. How would you say they rate in the virtue of generosity?

▪ We should not be surprised to find that those who are generous are happy. Here is the logic: (1) We are created in the image of God. (2) To the extent that we imitate God in our virtues, we find happiness. And (3) God the Father has been lavishly generous in the act and details of creation; Jesus as we meet him in the Gospels was very generous, and was ultimately so in His sacrifice on the Cross.

▪ Generosity begins with gratitude. While the world tells us to be discontented and to see ourselves as entitled, "the 7%" have an overwhelming sense that they have been blessed. How do I feel about my situation: do I feel that I have been shortchanged in my life, or would I say that the Lord has been very good to me?

▪ Generosity takes many forms. Making time for prayer is a way to be generous toward God. We can be generous with others in expressing praise, gratitude and encouragement. We are generous when we forego our own advantage or preference to accommodate others.

▪ Jesus talked a lot about money. It is far from the only measure of generosity . . . but it is something easy to measure. If I am not being generous financially, I am probably not being as generous in other ways as I'd like to think I am.

Homework for this week: calculate what percentage of your income you have given for God over the last three years. This would include parish and diocesan contributions, gifts to other ecclesiastical entities doing evangelical or charitable work, and gifts to other charitable organizations. Divide your total contributions by your adjusted gross income (the last line on the front side or your Form 1040). This will give the percentage expressed as a decimal (.05 = 5%).

Congratulations

Congratulations and best wishes to Rogelio Murillo and Mariana Borges who were married at Holy Redeemer last weekend.

Welcome

Welcome to Kevin Yahir Murillo who was baptized at Holy Redeemer Church last weekend. Congratulations to his parents, Miguel Murillo and Maria Guadalupe Cruz.

Open Church

The effort to have our churches open during the day has now been expanded to St. Patrick, which is now generally open with a greeter on Thursday afternoons. We anticipate more open hours (without a greeter) at St. Patrick as soon as new security cameras are installed, making it possible to monitor the church from the parish offices.

Holy Redeemer is open when Eucharistic Adoration is upstairs on Wednesdays, and is open with a greeter on hand Tuesdays and Thursdays, from mid-morning through the 5:15 p.m. Mass.

The open hours are primarily publicized through a sandwich board sign in front of each church. We've recently acquired attractive, matching signs for this purpose.

Young Adult Brunch Next Sunday, September 7th

We have a brunch for young adults (in their 20s and 30s) after the 11:00 am Mass at St. Patrick on the first Sunday of each month. Join us for brunch next Sunday, September 7th. Cash donations to help defray the cost of the brunch are greatly appreciated.

Venite Adoremus

Every second Friday of the month the Diocese of Madison hosts Venite Adoremus, Latin for Come let us adore Him, which is an opportunity to pray in Eucharistic Adoration, go to Reconciliation, and hear a meditation on how to grow as a 'missionary disciple' - the phrase Pope Francis has been using to describe the essence of what a Christian is supposed to be! This is a great way to meet friends and deepen your faith! The next one will be on Friday, September 12, beginning at 7 pm. Watch your email for the location and other details!

Theology on Tap

Theology on Tap is a monthly speaker series where 20s & 30s are invited to join us for engaging talks by some of the leading thinkers, speakers, educators, innovators, and activists in the nation as they share their insights on various contemporary issues facing young adults today. The next TOT gathering will be Thursday, September 25th.

To receive email updates about Young Adult activities in our parish, please contact Marc Laudonio at 257-5000 or marc@isthmuscatholic.org.

◆◆◆ Para Reflexionar ◆◆◆

La Muerte es el comienzo de la Vida

Comencemos por decir hoy que hay muertes preciosas. Es una muerte maravillosa la de quien puede decir en ese momento: "He cumplido mi misión". Una muerte así es el comienzo de la vida verdadera. Es propiamente entonces cuando se nace. Por eso en el Martirologio., el libro donde se narra la vida de los Santos y Mártires, no se hace constar el día de su nacimiento, sino el de su muerte, como el verdadero día de su nacimiento. La muerte para los buenos brilla como una estrella de esperanza. Sus frutos son la paz, el descanso, la vida. "Que alegría cuando me dijeron, vamos a la casa del Señor." Un muchacho decía a la hora de su muerte: "Qué bueno ha sido Dios conmigo, por haberme concedido vivir 17 años"; y moría ofreciendo su vida por sus padres y por los que lo habían formado.

Preguntémonos ahora la cosa mas importante: ¿Cómo será mi muerte? He aquí lo importante, no el cuando sino el cómo voy a morir. Es decir, en qué disposiciones. Aunque no podemos fijar el día, el lugar, la forma externa de morir, si podemos fijar el cómo. Podemos preverlo: se muere según se vive. Si se vive bien, lo normal es que se muera bien; si se vive mal, lo normal es que se muera mal, si Dios no pone remedio. Si vivo bien, con Su ayuda moriré bien; si vivo mediocremente, moriré como un mediocre; si vives santamente, no lo dudes, morirás como un santo.

Si desde hoy te decides a ser un buen hombre, seguro que morirás como un buen hombre, y nunca te arrepentirás; pero, si dejas ese asunto para mas adelante, lo dejas para nunca. No se puede improvisar la hora de la muerte. Los dos ladrones que iban a morir, estaban al lado de Jesús, pero solo uno de los dos se convirtió. Si muriera esta noche, ¿Estaría preparado? ¿Tendría mis manos llenas, vacías o medio vacías? ¿Estaré preparado el día de mi muerte? Esta es la gran pregunta.

Podríamos terminar esta reflexión con las palabras de un gran hombre, que todos los días medita sobre la muerte como maestra de vida: "Yo se que toda la vida humana se gasta y se consume bien o mal, y no hay posible ahorro: los años son esos, y no mas. Y la eternidad es lo que sigue a esta vida. Gastarnos por Dios y por amor a nuestros hermanos en Dios es lo razonable y seguro." según se vive, así se muere. Si esto es así: de los que viven santamente estamos seguros que morirán santamente. Pero de los que viven en pecado podemos estar seguros que morirán eternamente.

Padre José Luis Vázquez
