SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ July 20, 2014

Cathedral PARISH

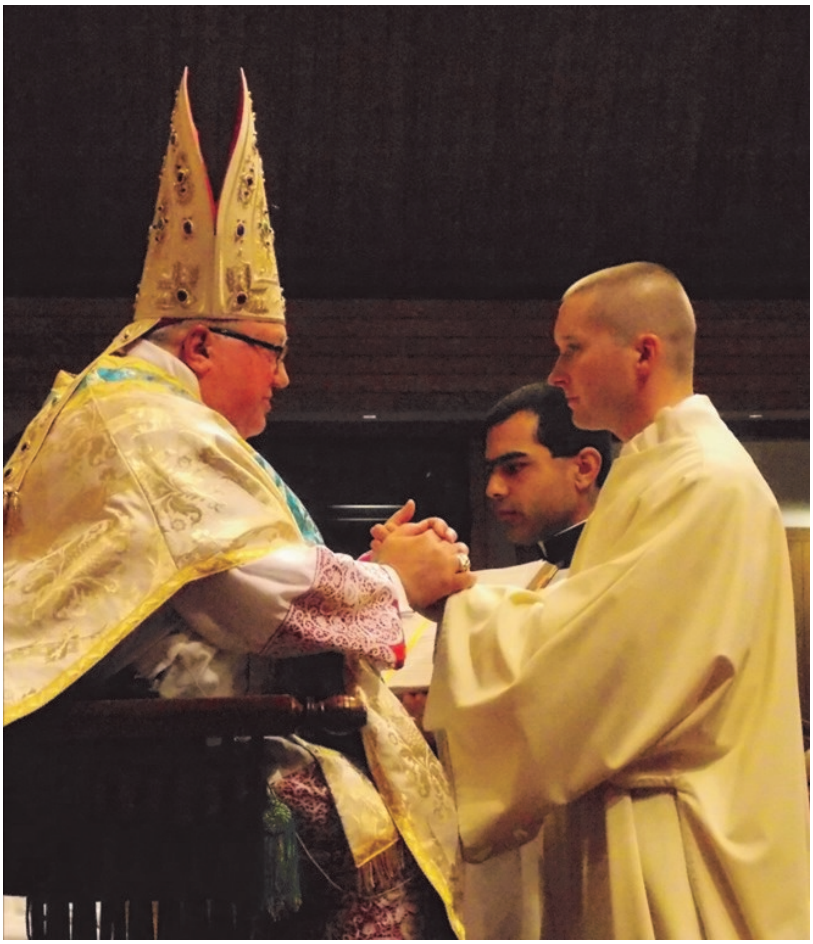
MADISON'S DOWNTOWN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ABOUT OUR PARISH

The Cathedral Parish of St. Raphael was formed on July 1, 2008 by the merger of three historic parishes located within a few blocks of the Capitol Square.

The buildings of two of those historic parishes – Holy Redeemer and St. Patrick – provide the current facilities for the Cathedral Parish. Mass is offered every day in both churches. The parish rectory is at the Holy Redeemer site, while the offices are at the St. Patrick location.

Old St. Raphael Cathedral was destroyed by arson in 2005. Bishop Morlino has announced his intention to erect a new cathedral on the same site (at West Main and Fairchild). In the meantime, an outdoor Way of the Cross is located there.



As part of the liturgy of ordination, Scott Jablonski promises obedience and respect to Bishop Morlino and his successors.

Dear Friends in Christ:

In my Sunday homilies during these summer months, I am returning to the topic of the New Evangelization – that is, the renewed proclamation of the Faith in cultures that have a Christian heritage, but where most people are not living as disciples of Jesus.

Here I would like to recap some of the points I made last Sunday and provide you with a few "notes" from what I am saying today.

Summary of introductory remarks last week:

The New Evangelization must begin with the re-evangelization of those who are already on our parish rosters and in the pews.

In his little book The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic, Matthew Kelly shows how much room for growth there is in our own commitment to discipleship by citing a couple of statistics he has gathered by surveying parishes around our country:

- 6.4% of parishioners contribute 80% of the volunteer hours given
- 6.8% of parishioners contribute 80% of the financial support given

It is largely the same people in those two groups (84% overlap); so about 7% of our registered parishioners are keeping our parishes alive.

In "the 7%," Kelly found four distinctive behaviors which are not so evident in the other 93%. The first of these signs or behaviors is prayer: not just prayer on occasion (when one is in the mood for it or is facing a crisis) but a daily habit (even we could say, "a discipline") of prayer.

The prayer takes a variety of forms among "the 7%" – daily Mass, Rosary, quiet conversation with God, reading Sacred Scripture – but it is a cherished part of daily life and an anchor of the day. It is the habit of prayer that provides the "good soil" in which the Word that is sown can bear fruit a hundred- or sixty- or thirty-fold.

From this week's homily, an outline of how fruitful prayer might look (adapted slightly from The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic):

1. Gratitude – thank God for whatever you are most grateful today.
2. Awareness – recall some time in the last 24 hours you have not been your best; talk to God about the situation and what you learned from it.
3. Listening – examine a passage of Sacred Scripture, an experience of the last day, or a classic prayer to see what the Lord might be telling you.
4. Peace – ask forgiveness for any wrong you have committed and ask the Lord to fill you with a deep and abiding peace.
5. Freedom – speak with God about how he is inviting you to change your life to be the person he created you to be ("to be a saint").
6. Others – lift up those for whom you should pray, asking God to bless and guide them.
7. Conclude with the "Our Father."

Msgr. Kevin D. Holmes

Endowment Fund Report

The June 30, 2014, balance in our Endowment Fund totals $692,605. Thanks to all the parishioners who have contributed a total of $3,686. Thanks, also, to the generous bequests of Meinrad & Jeanette Diederich of $160,000; H. Marie Loring of $10,938; and Fr. Lawrence Kieffer of $5,000. Additional contributions to the Endowment Fund are always appreciated. Several times a year a special Endowment envelope is included in your envelope packet.

Our Endowment Fund is established through the Catholic Diocese of Madison Foundation (CDMF). It is a permanent investment fund from which a 5% allocation is paid annually to support the life and programs of the Cathedral Parish. The contributions to the fund are never spent, and the fund is insulated from any legal claims against the parish or diocese. Donors can be assured that their gifts will be a permanent legacy to support the work of the Church in downtown Madison. All donations made to the Cathedral Parish Endowment Fund (CPEF) are tax deductible.

Lost & Found Boxes

Have you been searching for a missing item of clothing? A child's favorite toy? Check our Lost and Found Boxes (located in the narthex at St. Patrick and in the back of Holy Redeemer Church). Any items not claimed by next Sunday, July 27th, will be donated to the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Theology on Tap—This Thursday, July 24th

Join us this Thursday, July 24th, 7:00 pm at the Brink Lounge when seminarian John Winkowitsch will give a presentation entitled Experiencing God: Stories of Faith, Hope and Love. John has been asking this question of a variety of people for 15 years: What was the moment in your life when you felt the closest to God? It has resulted in some of the most memorable stories he has ever heard. He has begun to see a common thread that he wants to share with you so that you, too, can be led to an even deeper experience of God.

Concert on the Square – Wednesday, July 30

Enjoy an evening downtown listening to a U2 cover band. While you don't have to RSVP, if you do, it will give us an idea of how much blanket space to spread out that afternoon. When you come looking, we'll be in the grassy area across from the Old Fashioned. Feel free to bring food or drinks for the evening. The concert starts at 7:00 pm, but feel free to come as early as 5:30 pm to hang out. For more info, contact lindsay.becher@straphael.org

◆◆◆ Para Reflexionar ◆◆◆

¿Cómo orar cuando alguien te hace sufrir?

Hay personas que nos hacen sufrir. Sabiéndolo o no, queriéndolo o no, pero nos hacen pasar malos ratos. Nos duelen sus palabras hirientes, sus actitudes humillantes, sus tratos despóticos, su falta de responsabilidad, sus infidelidades, sus momentos temperamentales, sus olvidos y negligencias. Ante personas así podemos reaccionar siendo con ellos de la misma manera que son ellos con nosotros: "Para que vean lo que se siente". O bien podemos enfrentarlos, decirles sus verdades y ponerles un alto. O incluso evadir el problema ignorándolos y dejándolo a su suerte. Pero sabemos que estos recursos pocas veces funcionan.

Sin embargo, podemos también buscar el momento y las palabras mas adecuadas para hacerle ver lo que esta sucediendo. Podemos poner amor: "Donde no hay amor, pon amor y encontraras amor" (San Juan de la Cruz). Y por fin, orar por ellos. Orar por una persona querida es fácil, pero orar por una persona que te hace daño es difícil. Apenas lo traes a la memoria en la oración y se te retuerce el estomago. Y si llegas a formular una oración, lo mas probable es que esta sea para pedirle a Dios que lo parta un rayo, que le de una buena lección o que lo cree de nuevo. Aun si te salen estos sentimientos, intenta de nuevo. Veras que la oración irá ablandando tu corazón, pues en la oración se hace presente el Espíritu de Dios que es Amor, y Él, el Amor en persona, irá renovando tu corazón. Y te dirás: "Pero de lo que se trataba era de que el otro cambiara". Si, pero al orar por quien te hace sufrir te darás cuenta de que el primero que comienza a cambiar eres tu mismo.

Al rezar por quienes te hacen sufrir: Te das la oportunidad de desahogarte y de hacerlo con quien es Todopoderoso y puede remediar las cosas. Desahogarse con Dios sana y libera. Poner en manos de Dios aquello que no puedes controlar ni remediar es de personas sensatas. Dios te hace ver que el rencor, la venganza, la falta de perdón, el resentimiento, el odio, no son virtudes cristianas, y que mas bien debes aprender a ser cómo es Dios con nosotros: rico en Misericordia, dispuesto a perdonarme siempre (aunque no me lo merezca), tolerante, paciente, compasivo. "Perdónales, Padre, porque no saben lo que hacen" (Lc. 23, 34) "Hoy estarás conmigo en el Paraíso" . (Lc 23,43).

Rezas con coherencia y sinceridad el Padrenuestro y le das a tu Padre celestial excusa suficiente para perdonarte. "Perdónanos nuestras ofensas como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden".

El Espíritu Santo comienza a modelar tu corazón conforme al Suyo. Verás que todo ese rencor que llevas dentro es veneno que intoxica, vinagre que amarga la vida, y que a medida que te purificas de él y lo suples con la miel de la Caridad Cristiana, la vida se te hace mucho mas llevadera. Ya bastante mal te lo pasas con el sufrimiento que el otro te impone como para que lo amplifiques con el reflujo de tu propia amargura.

Y no te quede la menor duda de que si rezas con Fe y Caridad por quienes te hacen sufrir, Dios actuará. No esperes resultados inmediatos, simplemente espera con absoluta confianza en que Dios obrara en el momento y de la manera que considere mas oportuna.

Padre José Luis Vázquez
